SCHOOLS TO INDUSTRY PIPELINE

[The Public Health Approach]

Coordinated Services

ADPAC

Education - Economics - Trade & Industry - Employment
Politics - Justice - Health - Media

SCHOOLS TO INDUSTRY PIPELINE

[The Public Health Approach]

Coordinated Services

YOUTH PSYCHOLOGIST

These services providers supply therapists with diverse expertise from drama therapists through to psychologists to protect the mental wellbeing of our young people and enable the healing of trauma

RITES O

African Rites o
structured cul
training to ens
women have solid
culturally confi
cit

SCHOO
INDUSTRY

COORDINATED COMPETENT

Service providers wil
STIP App, which manage
delivery partners th

Organisations can run
different permission
and collaborate to prov
provision for young

WWW.AD

YOUTH MENTORING

These organisations provide trained youth mentors to schools, youth groups, families and training spaces to connect young men and women with people who can enable guided mentoring to create positive life outcomes.

CHILD/PARENT INTERVENTION

These organisations provide facilitators for intervention in family breakdowns between parents and children. They bring objective clarity to emotional situations by mediating for the best outcome of both parties in a culturally competent way.

EMPLO
TRA

These providers co
training, create
employers and fa
neurial programme
with the DWP, DfE
of government in
tions for young
their career

ADPAC

Education · Economics · Trade & Industry · Employment
Politics · Justice · Health · Media

SCHOOLS TO INDUSTRY PIPELINE

F PASSAGE

f passage entails
tural leadership
ure young men and
grounding and are ident contributing izens

ALTERNATIVE EDUCATIONAL PROVISION

These providers span from special needs, advanced, vocational, extra-curricular, behavioural challenged to supplementary schools

OLS TO PIPELINE

CULTURALLY SERVICES

l engage by using the s projects and connects hrough a CRM backend.

multiple projects with
settings for personnel
vide coordinated service
g people nationally.

PAC.NET

STUDENT ADVOCACY

These providers are educational policy experts and protect students from a system that breaks the rules when it victimises them. They also inform our intervention to the way the DfE deals with our children.

YMENT & INING

ordinate employment relationships with
acilitate entrepre-
es. They also work
and various strands
establishing solu-
people to achieve
r aspirations.

EDUCATIONAL CURRICULUM

These providers have designed components of a culturally competent curriculum for British African Diaspora children/young people and families to concurrently deliver that creates community cohesion and bright ambitious young people.

ADPAC

Education - Economics - Trade & Industry - Employment
Politics - Justice - Health - Media

SCHOOLS TO INDUSTRY PIPELINE

[The Public Health Approach]

Coordinated Services

WWW.ADPAC.NET

ACCESS UK
OPENING DOORS TO YOUTH OPPORTUNITIES

ADPAC

Education - Economics - Trade & Industry - Employment
Politics - Justice - Health - Media